Senior Women: A list of female athletes who have taken part in Scotland international matches in the period from the first women's international in 1936 to the current date. Where an athlete competed for Scotland under their maiden name and their married name, both are shown, listed as, for example, Beattie/Halliday, the maiden name appearing first. If the athlete first represented Scotland under her married name, the maiden name is shown in brackets, e.g. McBeath (Spence).
